

Great Britain hosted the 5th Long Range World Championships at Bisley, Surrey, in September 2005. British team members won six gold, three silver and four bronze individual medals and silver in the Long Range Team match. The Association's Club House during the Championship is pictured inset.

