PROBATIONARY MEMBERS

The Rules of the MLAGB require that all new members are under a probationary period of six months. In order that the Association may sponsor your application for a Firearm Certificate and confirm your membership it is necessary for you to attend regularly at a range and receive a course of instruction in the use of muzzle loading firearms. This instruction may be given by any full member of the MLAGB or other Home Office Approved Club.

Your local Branch Secretary will be able to assist you to attain the necessary level of instruction, if required.

On completion of your instruction and at the end of the six-month probationary period the person responsible for your training should sign and complete the form below and return it to:

Andrew Grimmett
Valley View
Heyford Road
Upper Heyford
Bicester
Oxon
OX25 3LA

Once Andrew Grimmett (the MLAGB Range Officer and Police Liaison Officer) has authorised the below a new full membership card will be issued.

I certify that MLAGB Membership Number has completed an appropriate course of instruction in the use of Muzzle Loading Firearms.
